Reasons for allowance

1. This communication is in response to applicant's 11/18/2004 amendment in the application of Turner et al. for a "Communications interconnection network with distributed resequencing" filed 03/07/2000. This application is a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) under C.F.R. 1.114 filed on November 18, 2004. The proposed amendment to the claims and response have been entered and made of record. Applicant's argument and remark with regard to the rejection under 35 USC 103 are persuasive. The claims have been amended to better point out and more distinctly claim subject matter comprising the invention.
2. Claims 24, 25, 29, 30, 34-37 are allowable as evident by applicant's amendment (Claims are renumbered as 1-8 respectively).
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant application is deemed to be directed to a no obvious improvement over the prior art of record. The improvement comprises: in response to making a determination that not one of the data packets has associated therewith the earliest timestamp value, always discontinuing forwarding of the one or more data packets for the remaining duration of a current cell time, as expressly recited in the claims.
4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue
